16. [ ] LIAISON Called Guy McConnell, Clerk, Senate Appropriations Committee, and told him of the existence of a leak of the "Taylor Report" as well as the hold down on it. He said the hold down "doesn't bother me." I alerted him to the annex of the Congressional Checklist and explained the source situation to him.

I then told McConnell about the requests we have received from the Select Committees for copies of Memoranda for the Record of Committee briefings. He agreed with me that we could give copies of the statements prepared for the Director's use but not the memoranda.

I then discussed with McConnell our reclama letter on the budget and said I had suggested the Director see Senators Roman Hruska (R., Nebr.) and Milton Young (R., N. Dak.). McConnell said if we saw them, he thought we should see Senator John Pastore (D., R. I.) and the other members of the Committee also. He said if we go up and say "save this program and cut others" we could lose all the programs. He strongly recommended against doing it that way.

17. [ ] LIAISON Called Jane McMullen, in Guy McConnell's, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, office; Kal, in Frank Slatinshek's, House Armed Services Committee, office; Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee; Elly, in Pat Holt's, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, office; and Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee, and advised them that we had received a report [ ] that Generalissimo Franco had died. I said this system has not always been accurate though and we were doublechecking the accuracy of the report.
